

SUHAN BEGENJOV

PROJECT MANAGER

I am a qualified and professional web developer in database administration and website design. Strong creative and analytical skills. Team player with an eye for detail.

ABOUT ME

○ APPLICATIONS DEVELOPER

- I turn ideas into interactive digital experiences. As an Application Developer, I enjoy crafting clean, scalable solutions where creativity meets code, building products that are both functional and meaningful.

○ WEB CONTENT MANAGER

- I shape stories through digital content. As a Web Content Manager, I blend creativity with strategy to deliver engaging, user-focused content that connects brands with people in a powerful way.

○ ANALYSIS CONTENT

- I explore data to uncover hidden stories. Working in content analysis, I transform raw information into clear insights, helping ideas evolve through logic, creativity, and smart decision-making.
